Dates	June 25th at 5 PM (with dinner) to July 4th at 12 Noon. We request that your travel plans allow you to attend the retreat from start to finish.
Venue	Terzo di Danciano, Cortona, Italy • www.terzodidanciano.com <ul style="list-style-type: none">◆ 51 minutes (58 km) from Perugia Sant'Egidio International Airport◆ 1-½ hours (134 km) from Florence Peretola International Airport◆ 2-½ hours (195 km) from Pisa International Airport
Retreat Fee	The “hard cost” fee for attending the retreat will be between €750 and €1250 (Euros) depending on room selection and the number of attendees at the retreat. This fee covers your room and daily meals, and the costs of travel, room and board for the team of trainers and organizers.
Contribution to Trainers and Organizers	At the end of the retreat, you will have an opportunity to hear needs and requests from the team of trainers and organizers around compensation for the training and services they have provided, to reflect on your own needs and the value you received from the retreat, and to make a contribution to the team. A contribution from each participant between €650 and €1300 (Euros) depending on the number of attendees at the retreat would match what is typically received by a team at an International Intensive Training (IIT).
Application, Registration and Down Payment	This CALF retreat is intended for certification candidates. If you are wanting to attend and are not yet a certification candidate, contact a CALF trainer to clarify if we would support your participation. An application to attend the retreat will be available online at www.nvccalf.com by January. After review, and upon acceptance of your application, registration and a down payment of approximately €500 (Euros) by mid-February will hold your spot at the retreat.
Special Note to CNVC Certified Candidates	Although this CALF retreat is not an official CNVC International Intensive Training (IIT), it will fulfill the strong request that each CNVC certification candidate attend an IIT. Before registering, if your assessor is other than Michael, Sylvia or Stephanie, you may want to check with your assessor to see if he or she is in agreement.
Accessibility	Contact the retreat center to insure your needs for handicapped accessibility will be met.
Retreat Language	The retreat will be conducted in English with Italian and occasional French, German and Hebrew translation. It is important that participants have basic fluency in English or Italian.
Informational Teleconference Call	For more information and to participate in the co-creation of this community event, join us on a teleconferencing call on Wednesday, January 16 th at 10am Eastern/New York time (Meeting ID: 395 218 7276). Connection details are above, or at https://zoom.us/join (browser), or at https://zoom.us/join (phone). Future calls will be posted on our website.
Detailed FAQ	By January, we will post and then regularly update detailed information on our website.

The CALF program is a knowing, sharing and living adventure for being and becoming our authentic self through the process of Nonviolent Communication for those on the path (or exploring the path) of CNVC Trainer Certification. Within this caring community, CALF team members and participants accompany one another on a journey of blossoming into the fullness of ourselves through exploration, self-empowerment, self-responsibility, and increasing our inner and outer resources. CALF is led by a seasoned team of CNVC assessors and trainers residing in Switzerland, Canada, Israel and the United States who speak Italian, German, French, Hebrew and English. We offer regular in-person retreats, online workshops and individual mentoring.
